Presidents Message

The weather is changing so plan your flights accordingly but there are many great beautiful autumn days ahead to work on your project or fly to tim-buc-too so saddle up and take a flight enjoy the Fall colors and smooth air. Our vice President Darrel Radford will be holding a meeting tonight the 1st of November. I am still laid up from surgery but sure want to get off the ground. Enjoy the Fall, happy thanksgiving!

Ralph

Editors Message

Phil Corman

This past summer, Pete Johnson produced a video entitled Timeless Voices in Aviation, highlighting Frank Rezich. The EAA has placed it on the national website. It is a fascinating video and a tribute to one of our homeboys. Click Here to view this wonderful video.

EAA Invited to FAA Rulemaking Committee
EAA has been invited by FAA to participate in a reorganized Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee (ARAC), which brings GA community representatives together to help develop and refine regulations directly affecting recreational and general aviation users. I have designated to the FAA leadership that Vice President of Advocacy and Safety Swan Elliott will be EAA's lead representative to that committee, with Government Advocacy Specialist Tom Chaperier as the alternate.

Congrats on 5,000 Young Eagles!
Congratulations and thank you to Fred Stadler, one of our most active Pioneer Airport volunteers, who recently flew his 5,000th Young Eagle since becoming involved in the program in the 1980s. Fred spends much of his summer at Pioneer, where he has the opportunity to fly Young Eagles who are among guests at the AirVenture Museum. We also thank all the pilots who fly Young Eagles, regardless of how many, and encourage everyone to keep introducing young people to the world of flight.
